Eight Hour Movement.

The Final Result of the May Day Demonstrations.

MR POWDERLY INTERVIEWED.

He Says It is to Convince the Public That the Labor Element is in Favor of Shorter Hours for the Toilers—Dispatches From Various Places on the Labor Question.

SCRANTON, Pa., May 1.—General Master Workman Powderly, of the Knights of Labor, was seen at his home by a reporter of the United Press. The master workman had just returned from Buffalo, where he had gone to aid in adjusting labor differences. He was asked his views concerning the labor demonstration in New York and elsewhere and at first stated that he had nothing to say and that all such information should come from Mr. Gompers, president of the Federation of Labor, under whose auspices the demonstration would be held.

Mr. Powderly said that he would address a labor meeting in Jersey City this evening, at which time he would air his ideas concerning this great labor movement. Warming up to the subject later, he said that his position on this question was too well known to need any explanation.

He had always favored an eight-hour law. The Knights of Labor had also endorsed it, adopting a preamble favoring it at the general assembly in 1878. As he understood it, to-day's demonstration throughout the country were to convince the public that the labor element was really in favor of shorter hours for the toilers. It has been alleged by many that the eight-hour movement was simply for effect and that the workmen did not really favor it. After the demonstration it was to be hoped that there would be no untrue charges of the kind.

The movement to secure an eight-hour law is an universal one," said Mr. Powderly, "and we are all working steadily for it. Within the last few years about thirty industries employing labor have adopted it, and still others have adopted the nine-hour system. In some instances workmen received but eight hours' compensation, and in others they got ten hours' pay for eight hours' work. Other industries pay their workmen ten hours' compensation for nine hours' work.

The plan which I recommend to the general assembly, was to reduce the hours of labor one-half hour each year till an eight-hour system could be obtained with ten hours' pay. This has been adopted by the Union Pacific Railway company and in three years their men will be working eight hours daily. I believe that the American Federation of Labor is concentrating its efforts in favor of the carpenters just now and if they succeed it will be a great gain to labor generally. The carpenters are the largest class of mechanics which have a membership in the Federation. The cigarmakers are already working on the eight-hour system, at least all who were members of the Knights of Labor.

"You will see" concluded Mr. Powderly. "That this eight-hour law is a most righteous one, when you remember that a man can perform between the hours of eight and twelve in the morning more labor with the implements of the present than two men could perform in two days of ten hours each with the implements used forty-eight years ago. The genius of the mechanic provided this labor-saving machinery, and it is but right that he should share its benefits. However, the solution of the whole problem will come when the laborer shares the profits of his toil. As he will be then working for himself, he can labor then eight or ten hours, as he may desire."

Labor Day in Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Labor's annual holiday will be celebrated to-day by nearly every trade organization in the city. The parade promises to be a monster affair. The many that have spoken for places in it will turn out full quotas, and it is estimated that no less than 50,000 men will be in line. The one significant feature of the parade is that it will in a measure indicate the extent of the eight hour agitation, for nearly all the unions that will participate will be found arrayed on the side of the men who are fighting for a shorter working day. A monster mass meeting will be held on the lake front after the parade, which will be addressed by Judges Tuley, Altgold, Tuthill and Prendergast, Congressman Frank Lawler, Charles F. Seib, of the cigarmaker's union, and W. H. Kiver, vice president of the carpenters' council.

While the molders as a body are in favor of a shorter work day, they will take no united action on the subject, owing to the fact that a large number of their men are tied up by contracts. The men employed in the shops of R. T. Crane & Company, the men in the malleable iron works on Blue Island avenue have demanded eight hours and an advance of 10 per cent. in wages. It is expected that their example will be followed by the forces at McCormick's, French's car shop and other extensive establishments.

The committees chosen by the carpenters' council and the new Bosses association met yesterday afternoon and agreed upon the third umpire, Judge McConnell, who, with Judges Tuley and Driggs, and the committee of six from each organization, will settle the carpenters' strike by arbitration. These fifteen gentlemen will meet at the Grand Pacific club room Friday morning, and it is believed all differences will be speedily settled. The carpenters are pleased at the prospects and the bosses are glad that they can resume work Monday on their contracts.

At a meeting of packing house laborers last night the prospective strike at the stock yards was practically declared off. This action is said to be in accordance with the wish of the American Federation of Labor who want to settle the carpenters' fight before another is inaugurated. The decision seemed to meet with satisfaction on the part of a majority of the workmen. The failure of this movement practically puts an end to the general movement and greatly reduces the chances of impending trouble.

State of Affairs in Boston.

BOSTON, May 1.—The three carpenters' unions of Boston held a mass meeting last night for final action on the strike question and the committee on arbitration having reported the failure of all their efforts, it was unanimously voted that all men employed by firms which have conceded eight hours, go to work as usual, but that all those employed by the timber and building associations, shall stay out. It was stated as probable that all non-union men would also quit work. The men are confident of success and say they will have the aid of the American United Brotherhood of Carpenters, the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners of the World and the American Federation of Labor.

The Lasters' Protective union convention met here yesterday with 134 representatives of sixty-nine branches of the union present. Business in nearly every shoe center of the country was reported good, and Edward McSweeney was elected president.

Demands of Railroad Employees.

ALTOONA, Pa., May 1.—The brakemen of the Altoona division, Pennsylvania railway, asked for an increase from $1.65 to $2.15 for day employees and $2.18 for a night of twelve hours, and it is probable that these demands will be granted. Similar demands will be made by the conductors, engine men and firemen of the same division. They will ask for the same ratio of raise. Beginning with to-day all the large shops will work only nine hours a day instead of ten, as heretofore. The general uneasiness in railroad circles has evidently reached here, but no strike is feared. The reduction in hours is said to be due to the strike troubles in Pittsburg.

Boycotting Machinery.

BOSTON, May 1.—The Colliers' Protective union is distributing upon the streets an appeal for a boycott upon coal hoisted by machinery. The circular says that the use of machinery will throw 1,500 colliers out of employment, besides large numbers of coopers, blacksmiths, rope-makers and wheelwrights.

The longshoremen on Grand Junction wharf have refused to handle a quantity of bacon from the packing house of John P. Squires & Company for shipment to Antwerp by steamer Du Ruyter on the plea that it was prepared by non-union labor.

Dock Laborers' Quit Work.

DULUTH, Minn., May 1.—All the coal dock laborers here went out on a strike yesterday morning. They were induced to go out by agitators from West Superior, where the dock laborers struck two days ago. About 200 men on the Northwestern dock quit without notifying the company of dissatisfaction and they were followed by forty pioneer dock hands. They have been getting forty cents an hour and demanded fifty cents. The companies refuse to meet the advance and claim to have double the applications for work that there are situations.

Pittsburg Trouble Settled.

PITTSBURG, May 1.—The supreme council of the Federated Order of Railway Employees held a final meeting yesterday and decided to accept the propositions of the different railroad companies centering in this city made to their yard employees, which is twenty-four cents an hour for day conductors and twenty-five cents for night, and eighteen cents an hour for brakemen, and nineteen cents for night brakemen. This is quite an advance over former wages for this locality.

Union Men Being Crowded Out.

TAUNTON, Mass., May 1.—The journeymen's demand for nine hours has been acceded to without dissent. Of 150 journeymen carpenters, twenty-three belong to the union, and so unanimous is the feeling against the nine-hour demand that it is thought the union men will have to give up or be crowded out of work, of which there is very little at the present time. A dozen hodcarriers on the new yarn mill at Wein village struck yesterday afternoon for twenty-five cents increase. They were refused, and others were hired at once.

Two Thousand Strike in Detroit.

DETROIT, Mich., May 1.—The Builders' Exchange yesterday evening refused the demands of the carpenters for an eight-hour day and thirty cents an hour. About 2,000 carpenters have struck.

A special to The News from Duluth, Minn., says: All the coal dock hands to the number of 300 went out on a strike this morning.

Iron Molders' Demands.

CINCINNATI, May 1.—At a special meeting of Iron Molders' union No. 4 it was decided to ask an increase of 10 per cent. in wages. About two years ago there was a cut of 10 per cent., and since then the men have been trying to get an increase. About 300 men would be benefited by it.

No Trouble at Salem, Mass.

SALEM, Mass., May 1.—The carpenters' union have notified the bosses that on and after May 1 nine hours shall constitute a day's work. Over half the bosses are working nine hours already, and it is expected that the rest will grant the request without the necessity for a strike.

In Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—At a large and enthusiastic meeting of union carpenters last night, the determination to strike unless the increase in wages from thirty to thirty-five cents an hour is granted, was reaffirmed.

The Flood Situation.

Two More Levees Yield to the Heavy Waters.

THREE TOWNS IN GREAT DANGER

False River, West Baton Rouge and Iberville Are the Sufferers—One of the Breaks Closed—Cost of Closing One of the Crevasses and the Benefits to Be Derived Therefrom.

BAYOU SARA, La., May 1.—The old levee in front of Hermitage, Point Coupee side, caved in at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, and the water thus forced against the new levee caused the latter to give way at 6 a.m. This crevasse will prove disastrous to False River, West Baton Rouge and Iberville, and will also put the Grosses Tete levees to a severe test. There is no material change in the situation at Morganza. The break in the Bayou Sara front was closed yesterday.

Cost of Closing a Crevasse.

NEW ORLEANS, May 1.—Capt. Kinsman, United States engineer, says it will cost more than $30,000 to close the Lobedell crevasse, but closing it will save $150,000 to planters; so, if the amount available for the work is too small, the planters can afford to make up the deficit.

INDIANA'S GOVERNOR.

It is Said He May Not Live to Serve to the End of His Term.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 1.—The friends of Governor Hovey are becoming very much alarmed over his condition. One of them said Tuesday that he did not believe the governor would serve to the end of his term. Some three months ago Mr. Hovey suffered a severe attack of the grip and this was followed by a very acute form of rheumatism.

He was still suffering from the latter disease when dropsical tendencies became plainly marked, and he is now in very feeble health. He is frequently absent all day from his office, and when he comes down he is compelled to use a carriage. It is with great difficulty that he walks even on the smooth oiling floor of the capitol, and he goes in and out of his carriage only with assistance.

Rope-Walk Burned.

CINCINNATI, May 1.—Charles C. Jacob's rope-walk at Cumminsville was destroyed by fire yesterday, which entailed a loss of over $20,000 and rendered five families homeless. The flames originated from an overheated pitch pot. The building, a one and one-half-story frame 50 by 300 feet, was owned by Henry Dremann, and adjjoined his residence. The rope-walk was completely destroyed—loss $4,000—and Dremann sustained $8,000 loss on the building, which was insured to the extent of $5,000. The loss on Dremann's residence was $2,000. Other losses sustained on adjoining property, none of which was insured, are as follows: Joseph Rice, employed in the rope-walk, frame dwelling, $1,000; Andrew Wiggins and Jacob Lee, double residence, loss $2,500. The house was occupied by Charles Boyd and Lee. George Turner, frame dwelling, occupied by Daniel Hopkins, loss $750.

Crazed by Her Husband's Murder.

COLUMBUS, Ind., May 1.—Mrs. John Kilgour, aged 34 years, whose husband was shot dead with a musket at Madison, Ind., Jan. 2, 1890, by Leander Henderson, who is now serving a fifteen-year sentence in the state prison, was yesterday taken to the Indiana insane asylum at Indianapolis, where she will be carefully guarded, having lost her reason at the time of the murder. She had raven hair, but to-day it is as white as snow, and though she is not vicious, she does not know her own children, and fancies she sees the face of her husband's assassin constantly before her, which she is trying to shun.

A Spotter in Disguise.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 1.—The Railroad Conductors' association is smarting under the wholesale discharge of its members by lines centering here. Nearly all the men discharged were Masons of the Thirty-second degree, and it is claimed that their discharge was brought about by a fellow-Mason of the same degree, who traveled over all the roads and succeeded in getting transportation by giving the Mason sign of distress. He proved afterward to be a spotter, and reported every man who showed him a favor. The discharges followed CARRIED IN THE COURTS.

The Big Men of the World Indicted for Criminal Libel.

NEW YORK, May 1.—The grand jury has just handed in indictments against Joseph Pulitzer, John A. Cockerill, Julius Chambers and James F. Graham, of The New York World, for criminal libel of ex-Judge Hilton.

The World says editorially this morning in regard to Judge Hilton's indictment against the paper for alleged libel upon the late A. T. Stewart: "The judge cannot shield himself behind the ghost of the man whose generosity he abused. The World repeats the charge that Hilton preyed upon Stewart and robbed Mrs. Stewart, and it invites him to test the truth of the charges in the courts."

Farmers' Fatal Quarrel.

BOLIVAR, N. Y., May 1.—Yesterday Henry Smith, a farmer residing at Jordan Hill, near here, shot Rufus Carneghan, also farmer, with a revolver. The men disputed about the trespassing of stock on each other's property. Hot words were followed by blows and during the tussle Smith produced a revolver and without warning discharged two shots into Carneghan's body. Carneghan is still alive, but will die.

THAT CHALLENGE.

The Fiery Message Never Offered to the Telegraph Company.

Evidently some of the newspaper men at Frankfort are trying to place W. P. Campbell before the public in as ridiculous a light as possible, and the worst of it is that gentleman doesn't seem to be making any effort to put a stop to it.

A Courier-Journal dispatch was copied yesterday in which it was stated that Mr. Campbell on receiving back from Mr. Thomas R. Phister that "fiery message" sent to Mr. Davis, rushed forthwith to the telegraph office to forward the challenge by wire, but that Captain Taylor, operator, refused to send it.

Captain Taylor now says Campbell never offered such a message; that he (Campbell) didn't try to send any challenge by wire, and that the message will be sent any time he wants to pay for it.

The Louisville Times' correspondent says, "Mr. Campbell hasn't mailed the challenge to Davis, as he threatened. He says he hasn't had time. He has, however, had time to write to Mr. Phister, offering to accept an apology from Davis. Everybody is by this time disposed to laugh at the fiery journalist, but he insists that he means business."

The Frankfort correspondent of the Covington Commonwealth says: "Campbell told me that the reason he did not go to Maysville was that Davis would have him arrested."

Editorially, the Louisville Times says: "Is Mr. W. P. Campbell purposely playing upon the sensitive pulse of the timorous public? It is hardly possible that Mr. Campbell is intentionally making a fool of himself."

"A PAIR OF JACKS" has made an immense hit wherever played. An exchange says it is "one of the best farce comedies now before the public." At opera house to-night.

MISS DRUSY MARKLAND and Tom Zimmerman eloped from Owingsville and were married at Aberdeen. Miss Markland was engaged to be married to Wm. Sorrell on the day following her elopement.

An exchange says the company presenting "A Pair of Jacks" is an exceedingly strong one. "Every member of it is an artist of the highest order; every one a fine singer." At the opera house to-night.

THE man who was found dead on the C. & O. Railroad near Dover yesterday, was a negro. His identity had not been established at last accounts. Investigation showed that he was not connected with Robinson's show.

MR. WILL HALL, of Forest avenue, and Miss Tillie Downing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Downing of the Washington neighborhood, will be married next Wednesday evening at the First Baptist Church, this city.

REV. W. P. HARVEY and Dr. Eaton have sold the Western Recorder of Louisville to the Baptist Book Concern for $25,000. They paid $15,000 for it a few years ago. Mr. Harvey will be retained as business manager at an increased salary, while Dr. Eaton will remain editor at a handsome remuneration.

THE Central Hotel is one of the best in the State, and when the paper-hangers and painters get through with their spring contract it will present as bright and cheerful an appearance as any of them. It has always enjoyed a big patronage, but the genial proprietor, Captain Collier, is determined to make it more popular than ever before.

An exchange was about right when it stated that you can read the proof of a newspaper article three or four times and repeatedly pass the same error without seeing it. All newspaper men tell you so. But as soon as the press is started and the paper printed in its complete shape, there stands the error in front of you, so big that you can't see anything else.

E. L. SEXTON disappeared from his home near Plumville, this county, March 28, and is still missing. No trace of him has been found. It is thought he is deranged. He is about five feet eight inches in height, weighs about one hundred and seventy pounds, has red hair and moustache, sandy complexion and light brown eyes. His wife offers a reward for information of his whereabouts.

Service Pension Bill.

It Passes the National House of Congress.

ITS VARIOUS PROVISIONS.

Every Man Who Served Ninety Days in the Army or Navy and Has Reached the Age of Sixty Years Entitled to Eight Dollars Per Month Pension—Transactions of the Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—After the reading of the journal the house proceeded to vote on the passage of the bill for the classification of worsted cloth and woolen cloths. The bill was passed—yeas 183, nays 0—the speaker counting a quorum. The text of the bill is as follows: That the secretary of the treasury be and hereby is authorized and directed to classify as woolen cloths all imports of worsted cloth, whether known under the names of worsted or diagonals, or otherwise.

Mr. McKinley, of Ohio, from the committee on rules, reported a resolution providing for the immediate consideration of the senate service pension bill, to which the Morrill service pension bill may be ordered as a substitute, the previous question to be considered as ordered at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Carlisle, of Kentucky, protested against the adoption of resolutions of this character, which took away from the committee of whole the right to consider money bills, and forced the house to a vote upon them after a brief debate. The Oklahoma bill had been taken out of the committee of the whole with the previous question ordered upon it. The same had been true of the great court bill. If this was not a confession that the new code of rules had failed to facilitate the business of the house he did not understand its meaning.

Mr. McKinley argued that the resolution was justified under the present code of rules and by the precedent set by the house over which the gentleman from Kentucky (Mr. Carlisle), presided. The Republicans wanted to do the public business of the country. What the country wanted was results and not speeches.

The resolution was adopted and Mr. Morrill, of Kansas, took the floor in explanation and support of his bill. He said that this act of justice had been too long postponed. If the government were to grant a service pension it should do it without delay.

Mr. Yoder, of Ohio, spoke in favor of the service pension bill which had been endorsed by the G. A. R. and other veteran organizations. The minority opposed the Morrill bill not because it paid pensions but because it did not grant liberal pensions. He charged the Republicans with being untrue to their promises to the soldier.

Mr. Tarsney opposed the bill because it did not discriminate properly between the soldier who served three months and the one who served three years.

Mr. Spinola criticised the haste with which the bill was rushed through.

Mr. Sawyer, of New York, arraigned the Democratic party for opposing pension legislation.

Mr. Reilly, of Pennsylvania, Mr. Kerr, of Iowa, Mr. J. D. Taylor, of Ohio, advocated the bill.

Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, said that under this bill the pension expenditure would be increased to $150,000,000 annually, or 43 per cent. of the gross income of the government.

After an extended debate in which Springer, of Illinois, Turner and Perkins, of Kansas, and Cutcheon, of Michigan, participated, the bill was ordered to a vote. An amendment of Mr. Yoder providing for a per diem pension was ruled out on point of order. The caucus amendment reducing the age limitation from sixty-two to sixty years was agreed to.

The Morrill bill was then passed as a substitute for the senate bill. Yeas 183, nays 71.

Mr. Yoder moved to recommit the bill with instructions to report back a per diem pension bill. This was lost, yeas 48, nays 161.

The following is the affirmative vote: Barwig, Biggs, Brickner, Brookshire, Buckalew, Bynum, Campbell, Caruth, Chipman, Clancy, Clunie, Cooper of Indiana, Covert, Cummings, Dumbphy, Fitch, Flower, Fowler, Geisselhaimer, Gibson, Goodnight, Haynes, Holman, Magner, Martin of Indiana, McDado, McClellan, McCreary, O'Neil of Massachusetts, Outhwaite, Owens of Ohio, Parret, Paynter, Pennington, Pickler, Reilly, Seney, Shively, Spinola, Springer, Stone of Kentucky, Tarsney, Tracy, Turner of New York, Whiting, Williams of Illinois, Yoder.

The senate bill as amended by the substitute was then passed—yeas 179, nays 70.

The bill authorizes the secretary of the interior to place on the pension roll the name of any officer or enlisted man of 60 years of age or over, or who shall hereafter reach that age, who served ninety days or more in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States during the war of the rebellion, and shall have received an honorable discharge therefrom, and at the rate of $8 a month. All persons who served ninety days or more in the military or naval service of the United States during the late war and who have been honorably discharged therefrom, and who are now or may hereafter be suffering from mental or physical disability, equivalent to the grade now established in the pension office for the rating of $8 per month, shall be placed upon the list of invalid pensioners of the United States at the rate of $8 per month. It also provides for a pension to the widow of any soldier when she shall arrive at the age of 60 years, or when she shall be without other means of support than her daily labor.

The house then, at 5:20 adjourned.

Senate Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The senate yesterday discussed further the customs administration bill. Mr. Dolph, from the committee on foreign relations, reported a concurrent resolution requesting the president to negotiate with the governments of Great Britain and Mexico with a view of securing treaty stipulations for the prevention of the entry into the United States of Chinese from Canada and Mexico, and he asked for its immediate consideration. Mr. Ingalls objected, however, and the resolution went over. The senate resumed consideration of the customs administrative bill.

The amendment offered by Mr. Davis, that in cases of the importation of books, magazines and periodicals in several parts, but one declaration of entry shall be required, was agreed to.

The amendment offered by Mr. Vest, proving that the general appraisers who originally acted in a case shall be excluded from the board of three general appraisers to which an appeal may be made, was discussed at much length.

Mr. Vest's amendment was rejected—yeas 20, nays 29.

The bill was then laid aside.

Mr. Platt offered a resolution, which was agreed to, for a correction of the Oklahoma bill by substituting the word "east" for the word "west."

After a brief executive session the senate, at 5:40, adjourned.

Murderers Resisted.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The president has granted a respite until May 29 next, in the cases of Benjamin Hawkins and Lewis Williams, two colored murderers of this city, who were to be hanged May 2.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYS LK.

Perry Jefferson and wife were visiting Mrs. Anna Wilson last week.

Quite a wild storm last Tuesday evening. No damage here. Light rain.

We took a drive in the country a few days ago and found everything looking lovely. The wheat crop never looked more promising, and the earth is carpeted with a thick coat of grass. In our travels we called at Mrs. T. Kilroy's and found nine of them down with the measles. Miss Mat, who had been off on a visit for some weeks, had just returned home, and in a few days she will make the tenth one of the family with the measles. All doing well.

SHANNON.

The pub will not forget the executor's sale of the personal property of Thomas B. Arthur, deceased, at his late residence on Saturday, May 3. Twenty-two head of horses are among the items advertised.

Your correspondent is indebted to G. G. Parry, wholesale grocer of St. J. seph, Mo., for a copy of the annual report of the Board of Trade of that city, which claims a population of 75,000.

A. O. White, late of Pardis, writes that he has purchased a cottage here in Odessa, Lawrence County, Mo. Shrubbery and plenty of small fruit. He adds: "Captain Sam White finished corn planting the 10th of April, and will put out one-quarter acre of tobacco for chewing. I see Colonel John Reid, ex-Mason, every time I go to Lexington, who inquires about his old Kentucky friends. We all take the BULLETIN and receive it on Saturday following publication."

MINERVA.

Every one is busy making gardens this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Pickrel, of near here, are visiting relatives in Ora, Georgia.

Mrs. Anna Shepard, of Gallatin, O., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Mann.

Mrs. Lizzie Wilson, of Wilson's Bottom, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Mann.

Mrs. Matilda Poe, an aged lady, died at the home of her son-in-law, David Winters. The remains were interred at Sharon.

Our city hall has been wonderfully improved by our city daddies, by repainting the interior and elevating the seats. Our hall will eat in the neighborhood of three hundred persons, and a good minstrel or dramatic troupe could play three or four nights to crowded houses.

On invitation of Jos. F. Walton and Thos. Tyler, I visited the fair grounds Monday, where their handsome horses, Chestnut Star and Stratobuck, are making the sea-on. They are fine horses as it has been my pleasure to look upon for many a day. I predict a brilliant career for Chestnut Star. He is a handsome young horse.

The Sagendorf Iron and Steel Roofing Company, of Cincinnati, have decided to have a supply of their roofing and materials kept here at all times, thus avoiding the delay of ordering, shipping, etc. By shipping a large quantity of it here at once, they give the very lowest cash price for the very best roofing.

Everybody is invited to call, and a special invitation is extended to the ladies. Country people are invited to bring all their produce to me and make my house their headquarters while in the city.

A New Departure!

Having disposed of all my stock of goods damaged by the late fire, I am now able to announce to the public that I will on Thursday, the 27th inst., open up in my elegant new store room on the N. W. corner of Market and Third streets, in Maysville, Ky., a new and complete stock of Staple and Fancy Groceries, Provisions, Canned Goods, &c., &c. I feel that I am at last able to supply the people of Maysville and vicinity what they have long needed—a first-class grocery in every respect. I do not propose to quote prices on a few articles, but in order to give you a chance to over-charge you on some other article, but by dealing with you fairly and giving you good goods at fair living profits, I shall expect to merit a liberal share of the patronage of the public.
